

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, 2020 ... Alleluia!

... to assist in your prayer this week.

Liturgy at Home

Scripture

Read the scripture readings of the Sunday Mass and sit with them quietly.

Did you know?

... that the word covenant comes from the Latin word convenire, which means, “come together”?

A covenant is an agreement between two groups who have become united by the promises that each has made to the other.

In the First Reading, covenant describes God’s relationship with the Israelites.

Conversation Starters

- Have your actions this week helped people experience more about Jesus?
- How can you invite more people to experience Jesus in their lives?

Faith in Action

In today’s Gospel, Jesus sends out the Twelve Apostles to share the Good News of God’s Kingdom. Missionaries go out to spread the Good News and show God’s love to others. What missionary groups have you heard of?

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to the Apostles,

“Come, follow me.”

You say the same words to us, today and every day.

Help us to follow you faithfully:

to walk in your way and your commandments,

to help those who are struggling,

and to love all people as you love them.

May we rejoice in your presence with us

as we work to build up the Kingdom of God,

where you live and reign with the Father,

in the unity of Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
