On this World Mission

Sunday, let us spend a few moments to hear the cry of all those who, like the blind man in the gospel, call out to us, seeking our mercy and compassion. Let us pause to consider how we too, like Jesus, can bless those in need: with our prayers and intentions, with our thoughts and actions. Jesus acknowledges that seeking practical support combined with the gift of faith, restores the man's eye-sight.

When we give in faith, to agencies of the Church like Catholic Mission, miracles can, and do, take place. On behalf of the missionaries we support, and those they, in turn serve, thank you. May God bless you for your generosity.
